

How Have Student Suspensions Changed Between School Years 2006-2007 and 2010-2011?

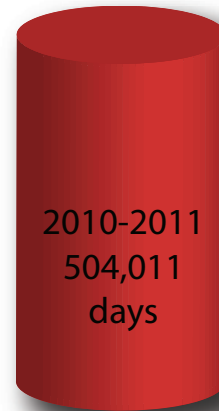

The number of suspended students is up 7.8%

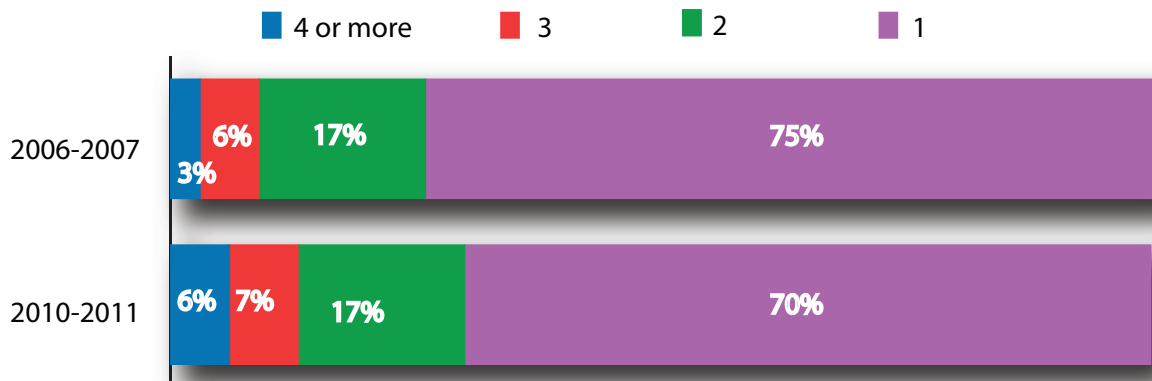

Length of average suspension is down 6.4%

Total number of days students are suspended has increased

A majority of suspended students are only suspended once during the school year, but the share of multiple suspensions rose

- Suspensions for disorderly or disruptive behavior and seriously disruptive behavior are up by 5%.
- Suspensions for dangerous or violent behavior and seriously dangerous behavior are up by 17%.
- Suspensions due to insubordination have effectively been eliminated.